Overall Progress Narrative:

-Communities and County staff continue to make progress on the environmental reviews for the five awarded projects. Two of the five awarded projects have completed the environmental review and were notified of completion on 12/22/2025. Those being the Village of Dupon and Village of Caseyville. East Carondelet ER is being completed by County staff and following minor changes to the project that required submission updates for compliance with Section 106, received clearance from the SHPO and is in the tribal consult period which ends 1/22/26. The City of East Saint Louis and Village of Cahokia Heights submitted their environmental reviews to the County for review the week of 12/28/2026.

-HUD Sponsored TA has been and is in the process of reviewing The County policies and procedures to ensure policies cover requirements of the Universal Notice. The County has received feedback and incorporated the feedback in the policies. Approximately 60% of the County policies and procedures have been updated and align with the Universal Notice.

-As of 12/31/25, The County has spent a cumulative amount of $58,299.46; $25,000 on Planning expenses and $33,299.46 in Administrative expenses.
