Speakers

Melenie Broyles, owner of Etiquette Saint Louis.

Broyles has worked in corporate human resources for 10 years prior to starting Etiquette Saint Louis 14 years ago. After reflecting on her own experience as well as parenting four children, she has seen a real need for programs that encourage self-confidence, poise and good manners. Broyles feels, "Everyone should have the opportunity to feel comfortable in social and business situations". Her programs are featured at Nordstrom stores, local country clubs, and throughout corporate America.

Lynn Clapp is a senior consultant for Vertical Performance, Inc., a psychologist and former Assistant Superintendent for Belleville School District

118. Lynn has 35 years of experience with individual and group development. He understands the influence of group dynamics and loves assisting groups in channeling this power into positive organizational growth. As a leadership coach, he is passionate about helping individuals unlock their unlimited potential.

The law firm Sandberg, Phoenix, and von Gontard, P.C., along with the Greater Belleville Chamber of Commerce and O'Fallon-Shiloh Chamber of Commerce, invites you to attend Springboard to Success - A Women's Forum.

Our women's forum themed Springboard to Success has been created to help women become empowered on their paths to success. Speakers will provide an energetic and interactive environment to take your lives to new levels.

Presenters will dive in and make all sorts of splashes with the following presentations:

Positivity in the Workplace:
Jim Schneider & Lynn Clapp, Vertical Performance

Putting Your Best Foot Forward:
Melenie Broyles, Etiquette Saint Louis

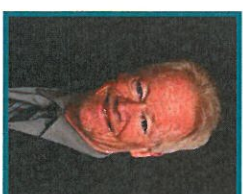

Workplace Environment:
Wendy Symer, WLS Consulting

Diversity in the Workplace:
Diversity Panel

Speakers

Jim Schneider is President of Vertical Performance, Inc.

and is the Director of Human Resources and Community Development for the City of Belleville. He has been in the human development and community building field for more than 30 years. Jim is passionately interested in the journey from individual growth to building community in organizations and ultimately to the larger notion of common good.

Wendy Symer is President and Owner of WLS Consulting, bringing 17 years of experience in sales, sales management and training, public relations, business management as well as team development to her business.

As a business coach, Wendy helps small business owners increase both profitability and personal satisfaction through leadership development, team building, and sales training. Her goal is to empower team members to think like business partners and create structure, enhance efficiency, reduce costs, improve sales and ultimately increase profits.

Panel members will be addressing diversity in the workplace.
