Consent Items

A motion was called to approve the December 5, 2014 CAA Board Meeting Minutes. A motion was made and seconded (Dennis Korte/Dorothy Meyer). Motion carried.

Reports were provided for the Low Income Household Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and Percentage of Income Payment Plan (PIPP), Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) program, Weatherization (WTX) program and Housing Resource Center (HRC). See attached reports.

Reports Approval

A motion was called to approve the CAA and HRC Program Reports as presented. A motion was made and seconded (Dorothy Meyer/Monica Miller). Motion carried.

Action Items

- a. A motion was called to approve the CSBG Procedural Manual for PY15. A motion was made and seconded (Dr. Sulbrena Day/Jennifer Childerson). Motion carried.

Discussion Items:

- a. Strategic Plan Development
DCEO has requested that all CAA's develop a Strategic Plan to align with the Office of Community Services for States to report on the establishment and implementation of CSBG Organizational Standards, no later than Fiscal Year 2016. Terry Beach will research a consultant to assist with the structure of the Strategic Plan.
- b. Tentative CAA Board Training through IAACA for March 2015 will be revisited at a later date due to fees for IACAA to provide IACAA training. The board thought that the fees were substantial and suggested other alternatives.

New Business

Food Pantry and Youth Program Bid Proposals have been received for PY2015. Bids were received from Catholic Urban Programs, Community Interfaith Food Pantry, Sinai Family Life Center, Lessie Bates Davis Neighborhood House, Jackie Joyner Kersee Foundation and the Christian Activity Center. Recommendations will be presented to the Executive Board Committee on behalf of the CAA Board for approval within the next few weeks.
