Chairman's Overview

Coroner Dye reported that due to the holiday season, next month's Metro East Police District Commission meeting will be held on Friday, November 17th at 9:00 a.m. He also reported that since Mr. Trice's contract ended in May 2017, the City of East St. Louis has not been able to afford purchasing background checks for law enforcement officers. Mr. Dye added if the City goes with another provider, the cost will increase from $400 to $800 per/officer.

David Hayes of SILEC

Mr. Hayes reported that he facilitates firearm training for part-time police and auxiliary officers. He added that background checks continue to be an issue for several officers involved. There was a discussion amongst the commission about addressing these problems.

Committee Reports

Resource Committee:

-At this time, the Resource Committee has discontinued and no report is available

Brooklyn Committee Report:

- Mr. Jeffrey shared that more incidents are being reported to their police department
- The trending crime in Brooklyn involves car thefts where firearms are left inside
- Brooklyn is working on reducing car pursuits
- He added the city needs additional funding to purchase spike strips. Currently, the department purchases a one-time spike strip set which costs $500 each.

COMMISSION ACTION:

Sheriff Watson and Coroner Dye both agreed to purchase 2-3 spike strips for the Brooklyn Police Department as long as the department's policies and training procedures are in compliance.
